ATR VERDICT: Llancillo Lord followed up on a success between the flags with a routine victory at Fakenham in this sphere 16 days ago and looks poised to go close once more, but he has to give some weight away to HARDROCK DAVIS, who looked unlucky when brought down here last month. John Dawson's mount was travelling as well as anything before that mishap and could now claim compensation. Greensalt was seventh in the Foxhunters' at Aintree but had a tough race there on testing ground.

ATR VERDICT: PEPPERONI PETE bounced back to form with a near miss at Limerick last time, beaten only a neck over a mile, and Ger Lyon's charge could have more to give down at seven furlongs and with a 10lb apprentice now handed the reins. Gigginstown representative Luminent has shown ability in maidens and could have a say now handicapping, while it is foolish to ignore Aidan O'Brien's War Front filly Carefully, who is another going handicapping for the first time.

ATR VERDICT: Willie Mullins' dual-purpose performer TRUE SELF won three in a row in this sphere last season, landing Listed success at both 1m2f and over this distance at Bath. She has a great chance of adding further glory as she is 13lb clear of her main rival Jaega on official ratings. Dermot Weld's charge has produced some respectable performances at both Group and Listed level, while Bongiorno is not ruled out representing last year's winning handler.

ATR VERDICT: GIORNI FELICE has not been beaten far in either of his starts so far this year and his recent third-placed finish at Limerick suggests he can win a race of this nature. Bobby Jean ran very well at the Curragh on Monday and she could go well if that effort has not left a mark, while Mastermind and Teologia are others to consider.
