ATR VERDICT: Alderbrook Lad took this contest by 11 lengths last term and returns from an eight-month absence off just a 2lb higher mark. Ballyvic Boru, who likes to race fairly prominently, has finished second the last twice and could be useful around this tight circuit. Preference, however, is for course-and-distance winner PRINCETON ROYALE, who has been successful against some top rivals lately and could prove difficult to stop at this level.

Top Tip: PRINCETON ROYALE (1)
Watch out for: BALLYVIC BORU (3)

ATR VERDICT: STAGE ONE was an emphatic winner of a point-to-point contest earlier this month and Alan Hill's eight-year-old could take plenty of beating if arriving in the same form now racing back under Rules. Dressedforsuccess and Fair Exchange both went close between the flags last time and command respect, while Absainte ran with credit when making the podium at Cheltenham last time and is also considered, having been in fine form this year.

Top Tip: STAGE ONE (10)

Watch out for: DRESSEDFORSUCCESS (5)

ATR VERDICT: FINAL REMINDER returned an impressive five-length winner in this contest last year and could provide the answer, as she is entitled to build on her reappearance effort at Ayr last month and could still be on an upward curve. Jessiemac finished second off this mark at Ayr earlier this month and is interesting now stepping up in trip, while Lostnfound is another recent silver medalist to consider, racing off an unchanged rating.

Top Tip: FINAL REMINDER (2)

Watch out for: JESSIEMAC (4)
