ATR VERDICT: RAFIOT confirmed the promise he showed over this distance on his penultimate start when justifying favouritism over course and distance last time and Gary Moore's five-year-old could be booked in for further success here off a 3lb higher mark. Bashful Boy was second on that occasion and could bounce back from a disappointing run at Wolverhampton with Cieren Fallon taking over in the saddle. Percy Prosecco has finished second on his last two appearances in this sphere and has been kept busy over hurdles of late, while Galahad Threepwood wasn't disgraced on his handicap bow in November and could have more to come.

Top Tip: RAFIOT (6)

Watch out for: PERCY PROSECCO (11)

ATR VERDICT: Supreme Escape ploughed through the Chepstow mud to win an extended 2m3f chase last month and he warrants respect stepping up in trip off an 8lb higher mark. A thorough test will certainly suit Findusatgorcombe, who won over an extended 3m6f at Exeter latest. Favori De Sivola is another last-start scorer to note, but a chance is taken on ERAGON DE CHANAY. Jumping can be an issue for the seven-year-old, but he ran well behind subsequent Grade 2 winner Messire Des Obeaux over 2m4f here last time and the handicapper has given him a chance, dropping him 2lb in the ratings.

Top Tip: ERAGON DE CHANAY (2)

Watch out for: SUPREME ESCAPE (3)
