ATR VERDICT: DAAFR relished the drop back to 7f when drawing clear for a three-length victory here last week and could take all the beating under a 5lb penalty if in the same form. Motawaafeq also carries a penalty for a C&D triumph two days earlier and has been in top form of late. His handler Mick Appleby is also represented by Wrath Of Hector, who stuck on well behind a good winner here last time and can't be ruled out.

ATR VERDICT: ITSALONGLONGROAD is a couple of pounds wrong at the weights here but comes into the race in winning form and may be able to follow up his win at Tramore on New Year's Day. A mark of 112 looks lenient enough for the Lawman gelding, who has won twice over fences and is a versatile sort having also shown good form on the all-weather this winter. The three at the top of the weights were all well held in a similar event for higher-grade performers at Limerick late last month. Dis Donc fared best that day, finishing fourth, and is entitled to play a big part in this company. Arahecan, who was fifth then, has Rachael Blackmore back on board now and is another to consider.

Long Handicap: Chillon Castle 8 - 11, Deconso 8 - 11

ATR VERDICT: AT YOUR SERVICE arrives here on the back of two victories in recent weeks and the in-form son of Frankel should be hard to beat once again. Krazy Paving bounced back to form when winning over this distance at Chelmsford on Friday and he does not have to carry a penalty for that triumph. Others to consider are Elzaam's Dream and Deconso.

ATR VERDICT: Straight Ash accounted for LION'S VIGIL when winning over C&D a couple of weeks ago but, on 3lb better terms, the latter could reverse that form. Richard Fahey's gelding was returning from a 180-day break on that occasion so he should improve for the run. Grimsthorpe Castle is a proven performer at this venue and he should not be underestimated.

ATR VERDICT: Jeans Maite and Nellie French fought out the finish of a similar event over C&D earlier in the month, with the former coming out on top, and they should both be in the mix once again. That said, preference is still for AMAZING AMAYA, who was only beaten a neck when last seen at this track and she was not disgraced on her most recent outing at Southwell.

ATR VERDICT: TACKLESLIKEAFERRET displayed promise when finishing third on his racecourse debut over C&D a few weeks ago and he could be hard to beat with that experience now under his belt. Silent Performance has some good form to her name but her most recent performances in handicap company have to be a slight concern. ATR VERDICT: Plenty of these arrive with claims but none more so than MY GIRL MAGGIE, who has never finished outside of the first three in eight career starts. The daughter of Camelot has won twice at this track in recent weeks and a 4lb rise for the most recent of those victories may not be enough to stop her from completing the three-timer. Autumn War is another hat-trick seeker who merits plenty of respect, while Richard R H B edges out Horn Of Plenty to be the pick of the remainder.

Precision Storm placed in a class 4 handicap here latest and warrants respect now dropped in grade off a 1lb higher mark. Gavi Di Gavi and Cozone, a first-time gelding making his stable debut for James Ferguson, are others to watch out for.

ATR VERDICT: NOBLE QUEEN was far too keen when sent off favourite at Lingfield last time, but the pick of her form before that gives her a great chance here and she is of real interest in a first-time tongue-tie. Deadly Accurate went close in a similar contest at Kempton and has to be respected, while Mdina makes appeal dropping back in trip following some solid efforts.

ATR VERDICT: TURN OF PHRASE was much improved when second on her handicap debut and John Berry's filly could be the answer off a 1lb higher mark. Herons Nest has gone close the last twice and also holds leading claims with Adam Kirby booked once again. Universal Effect has done well over C&D of late and is respected, while Final Attack does all of his racing here and might bounce back from a disappointing display last week.
