ATR VERDICT: MENGLI KHAN turned in a creditable effort in a jumpers' bumper over this trip at Lingfield last month, keeping on into second over this trip, and should go close with a repeat performance. On The Slopes has undergone wind surgery since he was last sighted over fences at Cheltenham in November and it will be interesting to see how he fares now fitted with first-time tongue-tie. Earlofthecotswolds has been holding his form well over fences and could be keeping on well at the finish.

Top Tip: MENGLI KHAN (2)

ATR VERDICT: HONEST VIC was fifth behind Thyme Hill in the Long Distance Hurdle on his last start over timber and commands plenty of respect, for all this race is somewhat of a different test. Ecco has been running creditably over hurdles too and could also finish on the premises, while Esprit De Somoza commands plenty of respect as a recent jumpers' bumper winner at Lingfield and there may also be more to come from Adjali following recent wind surgery.

Top Tip: HONEST VIC (8)

Watch out for: ESPRIT DE SOMOZA (1)

ATR VERDICT: IMPHAL was touched off by a neck in a similar contest over this trip at Lingfield last month and is expected to give another good account for Gary Moore. 143-rated chaser Southfield Stone has been off the track since finishing midfield in the Caspian Caviar Gold Cup and is worth monitoring in the betting, for all this is a somewhat sharper test. Ballywood has undergone wind surgery since he was last sighted at Cheltenham and is another to note.

Top Tip: IMPHAL (5)

Watch out for: SOUTHFIELD STONE (6)

ATR VERDICT: NICKS NOT WONDER caused a bit of a surprise when relishing the step up in distance to make a winning switch to the handicap ranks at Kempton and the four-year-old could have plenty more to come following a 6lb rise. Mr Carbonator drops back in trip having weakened late over further last time and is only 3lb higher than when scoring on his penultimate start. Track-and-trip winning pair Mukha Magic and Arabian King finished away from the action when third and fourth respectively last month, but can't be completely ruled out.

ATR VERDICT: LIAMBA has twice made the podium off a 1lb higher mark since scoring over track and trip three starts ago and Mick Appleby's ultra-consistent six-year-old could be the answer to this competitive heat. Love Your Work's recent second here to Daafu brings him into calculations, while Plumette was a winner over further at Wolverhampton in December and could build on that here following a 5lb rise.

ATR VERDICT: CRAVED got off the mark at the second attempt when dropped back to this trip at Newcastle last month and William Haggas' promising gelding could be the answer once again here. The son of Kodiac, who is closely related to the Group 1-winning One Master, looked far from the finished article at Gosforth Park and looks the type to get better with each start. Greymare was an improver following wind surgery when second over a mile here last time and is interesting dropping back in trip, while Inexplicable was not without promise when third on his first outing for Antony Brittain last week.

ATR VERDICT: THAI TERRIER gained reward for a series of solid efforts in defeat when scoring over 2m at Chelmsford last month and remains open to more improvement over staying distances. Indigo Times has been raised 4lb for scoring over 1m6f at the same Essex venue last time and is expected to give another good account now stepped up in distance. Others to note are Rafiot and Social City, both of whom have won on Fibresand over shorter trips.
