ATR VERDICT: HIGHWAYGREY was short of room 2f out before flying home when beaten just under two lengths in the Zetland Gold Cup last week and the course-and-distance winner, who was successful at Doncaster on his penultimate start, could be the answer here off the same mark. Chichester was a place ahead of the selection in third in that Redcar contest and has to be taken seriously, while Pivoine (fourth) is backed to confirm York form over Satono Japan (sixth) and could take home some prize money.

Top Tip: HIGHWAYGREY (4)

ATR VERDICT: KING OF TSAVO made a winning switch to the handicap ranks at Kempton in December and could have lots more to come as he steps up in trip on his reappearance. He is preferred to Sir Rumi, who made a bold bid from the front when in search of back-to-back victories recently, and despite being headed late, is respected now handicapping. A return to faster ground could help Dubawi Sands better his disappointing showing in the London Gold Cup, while Skycutter and Aggagio are two interesting recruits from France now starting out for new handlers.

Top Tip: KING OF TSAVO (5)

Watch out for: SIR RUMI (1)

ATR VERDICT: Enough Already defied a slow start when keeping on well to secure victory at Brighton last time and has to be respected, looking to follow up off a 2lb higher mark. However, preference is for Richard Hannon's FOX POWER, who has been knocking on the door of late, including when beaten just over a length off this rating at Beverley earlier this month. Foreseeable Future was denied by a head over 7f here last week and is also noted stepping up in trip off the same figure, while Godolphin's Secret Moment can't be ignored on handicap debut.

Top Tip: FOX POWER (1)

ATR VERDICT: THOMAS LANFIERE made it back-to-back victories when successful over track and trip recently and David Simcock's four-year-old has been given a great chance of notching up a hat-trick following only a 2lb rise. The in-form gelding could fight this out with Nottingham runner-up Don't Joke, although Dramatica is worth a look in first-time cheekpieces.
