Long Handicap: Strict Order 9 - 0, Jan De Heem 9 - 0, Maghfoor 9 - 0, Jean Mary 9 - 0

ATR VERDICT: EDGAR ALLAN POE was back to something near his best when second last time and could go one better off a 2lb higher mark here to land his first victory since 2019. The seven-year-old can confirm form over Strict Order, who was back in third in that Catterick contest, while Captain St Lucifer looks to have been given a chance by the handicapper as he attempts to break his duck.

Top Tip: EDGAR ALLAN POE (2)

ATR VERDICT: NEVER DARK hit the line strong on his seasonal appearance when finding just one rival too good at Musselburgh 17 days ago. The Ian Jardine-trained gelding rates the one to beat off the same mark, although Son And Sannie could provide stern opposition now stepping down in grade, having competed in the Epsom Dash earlier this month. Soul Seeker recorded successive victories on similar ground earlier this year and completes the shortlist now the handicapper has given him a chance.

ATR VERDICT: A competitive event which could go the way of MAJALAAT, who was denied by half a length on stable debut for Rebecca Menzies at Haydock last time and is just 2lb higher now. He is backed to confirm form with Regal Mirage (second) from when he scored at Pontefract earlier this term, and can double his tally of career wins. Course specialist Zihaam and the aforementioned Regal Mirage have both tasted success at this track already this season and have to be taken seriously, while Puckle wasn't disgraced when third in search of a hat-trick off this mark at Carlisle last week.

Top Tip: MAJALAAT (4)

ATR VERDICT: KEEP BUSY is turned out quickly following a commendable effort when fifth in the King's Stand at Royal Ascot last Tuesday and the drop in class represents a fine opportunity for John Quinn's filly to get her head back in front. Wise Words went close to scoring on her return in this grade at Bath in April and this lightly-raced mare appears to have more to offer, while the Irish raiders, Dickiedooda and Iva Batt, are feared most of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: GHOSTLY has been a model of consistency of late and has a great chance here off a mark only 1lb higher than when beaten a neck at Carlisle last time. Out Of Sight was a place further back in third there and has to be respected, while Ventura Kingdom failed to stay when tried over 1m6f at Redcar, but his mark continues to fall as he moves back down in distance.

ATR VERDICT: WISE EAGLE, who had won three on the spin before a disappointing run at York last month, bounced right back to his best and quickly regained the winning thread at Musselburgh recently. He holds leading claims once again off a 1lb higher rating. Greengage, a course-and-distance winner on her penultimate start, is a four-time scorer this term and will appreciate the return to further. Stonific needed every yard to get up over 2m at Ripon earlier this month but has to be respected, while consistent trio Ayr Poet, Four Kingdoms and Three Castles could all make their presence felt.

ATR VERDICT: William Haggas boasts a tremendous win rate at Beverley (44%) over the last five years and his candidate, JUST JACOB, gets the vote to shed his maiden tag at the fourth time of asking. The three-year-old gave a good account on seasonal reappearance over this trip and, after a lacklustre run over 1m4f, looks poised to go close in this weaker affair. Just For Yuse displayed plenty of encouraging signs on debut, when being hampered late on, so demands plenty of respect. Tommaso hit the line strong over 7f last time and merits consideration stepping up in trip.

She hit the ground running this campaign, with a win on the Fibresand at Southwell, and, now the form of her penultimate run has been handsomely advertised, should give a good account in this contest. Fossos was just denied on his latest outing and demands respect in a similar event. Top-weight Show Yourself has been running with credit in deeper waters and merits consideration.

Hollie Doyle was aboard the selection on debut and tonight rides an interesting newcomer in the shape of Nazanin. Her, Desert, Isemel and Next Second are all worth a market check at least.

ATR VERDICT: SHANANDOA opened her hurdles account at Uttoxeter earlier this month and then followed up under a penalty at Stratford four days later. The thriving 10-year-old could still be ahead of the assessor and looks the one to beat in search of a quick-fire hat-trick. Secret Potion got off the mark at Warwick on his penultimate start, but nothing went right when sent off favourite at Ludlow last time. He could be a factor if back at his best, while Fontwell third Serveontime is another to consider.

Top Tip: SHANANDOA (9)

Watch out for: SECRET POTION (3)

ATR VERDICT: WILD BEAUTY and River Pride both bring solid form to the table and make most appeal, with preference for the proven soft ground performer. Charlie Appleby's filly powered through the Haydock mud when winning readily over 6f last month and this longer trip ought to suit. Noonie and Moon Island are respected on debut and a strong market move for either could well be worth noting.

Top Tip: WILD BEAUTY (1)

Watch out for: RIVER PRIDE (7)

Long Handicap: Catch The Cuban 9 - 13

ATR VERDICT: DELIGHT OF DUBAI has been knocking on the door since returning from a year off the track in March and has a great chance of bettering his most recent effort, when third at Worcester, off the same rating. He shades the verdict here over Demon D'Aunou, who was running well at Southwell last month before any chance of winning ended when blundering at the last. Rizzardo weakened quickly when sighted at the same venue in the spring, but a drop back in trip boosts his claims and he is also on the shortlist.

Top Tip: DELIGHT OF DUBAI (1)

Watch out for: DEMON D'AUNOU (4)

ATR VERDICT: Amir Kabir was a fast-finishing third over 1m2f at Leicester and must enter calculations stretching out to 1m4f for the first time, while Garden Paradise also merits consideration on her handicap debut. However, narrow preference is for Scott Dixon's SOCIOLOGIST. He was beaten just three-parts of a length when second on soft ground at Ripon last time and that form has been boosted with the first and fourth both successful since.

Top Tip: SOCIOLOGIST (8)

Watch out for: AMIR KABIR (2)
