ATR VERDICT: Not the strongest novice event on paper, with those benefitting from more experience looking the ones to focus on. PROFOUND ALEXANDER has shaped better than the bare form on all three of her starts, finishing well on each occasion, and a reproduction of the form she showed when second on the all-weather here last time may be good enough to get the job done. Damascus Finish ran another solid race when third at this track last time and the level of that form entitles him to be in the mix, while Brilliant News improved when fourth on his latest run and can get involved on his turf debut.

Top Tip: PROFOUND ALEXANDER (8)

Watch out for: DAMASCUS FINISH (7)

ATR VERDICT: WISE EAGLE has been in excellent form throughout 2021, bar a rare blip at York in May, and shaped when runner-up at Ayr last time as though the return to 2m would bring about further progression. Let Me Be was just denied when attempting to land the hat-trick at Musselburgh last month and has to enter the reckoning along with Bollin Neil, who has won twice at the course this season.

Top Tip: WISE EAGLE (1)

ATR VERDICT: ARBOY WILL caused a huge shock when winning on his debut at Windsor in April, yet that form has been well advertised since, and his latest third behind the talented Canonized at the same track doesn't read too badly in the context of this race. He is taken to make a winning handicap debut in a race where none of runners have yet proven themselves on the expected easy ground. Coup De Force showed up well for a fair way in the Queen Mary at Royal Ascot last time and will find this much less demanding, while King Of Speed also found the company too hot in the Group 2 Norfolk Stakes on his last run and is respected.

Top Tip: ARBOY WILL (1)

Watch out for: COUP DE FORCE (2)

ATR VERDICT: QUICK BREATH won over C&D two starts ago and he only found one too good over a mile here when last seen a week ago. A reproduction of either of those efforts would give the six-year-old a big chance today. Swiss Pride has been a consistent performer of late and he should be thereabouts once again, while Sayifyouwill completes the shortlist.

Top Tip: QUICK BREATH (3)

Watch out for: SWISS PRIDE (2)
