ATR VERDICT: DEEP SNOW is fragile but talented, finishing second on her debut in 2019 before winning her only start last year and she is one from one so far in 2021. The Bated Breath filly gamely won a novice stakes event over C&D last time and could strike again on her handicap bow. Nell Quickly also has a consistent profile and she could put up most resistance, while Fairy Cakes isn't out of it either.

Top Tip: DEEP SNOW (1)

Watch out for: NELL QUICKLY (5)

ATR VERDICT: Australia filly CALL ME SWEETHEART got off the mark when stepped up to this trip in the Curragh and can go in again. She stayed on well in the final furlong to get up by a short head in that fillies' maiden, and there should be much more to come from her off a mark of 81. The horse who was a close fourth boosted the form by winning in Limerick. This is a marked rise in class for Female Approach but she couldn't be arriving in better form. She is gunning for a hat-trick after a pair of victories in the 45-65 grade. This is tougher but she is well worth a shot at it. Prince Of Verona won over 10 furlongs at Naas and has prospects on his first crack at a mile and a half. Snowy Owl can pick up more prize money.

Top Tip: CALL ME SWEETHEART (1)

Watch out for: FEMALE APPROACH (7)

ATR VERDICT: INVINCIBLE SOLDIER caught the eye when putting in a career best to finish second over a mile at Leicester eight days ago. That performance suggests that he should be suited by this step up in trip and a 1lb rise in the ratings appears to be fair. Sisterandbrother also hit the crossbar on his most recent outing and he is likely to pose the biggest threat to the selection. The rest look to be up against it but Monsieur Fantaisie is arguably the pick of them.

Top Tip: INVINCIBLE SOLDIER (3)

Watch out for: SISTERANDBROTHER (1)

ATR VERDICT: Most of these have claims but preference is for the unexposed SNOWALOT, who showed plenty of ability when finishing second on his handicap debut over this trip at Nottingham last month. A 3lb rise for that effort appears to be fair, especially as he may have more to offer on just his fifth career start. Cherry Cola is an obvious danger having won at the same venue when last seen. Others to note are Running Cloud and Orin Swift.

ATR VERDICT: The James Fanshawe-trained CROWN POWER looked promising in her early starts on the all-weather at the end of last year, including when beating the reopposing End Result with plenty to spare at Kempton in October. She failed to build on that win on her handicap debut at the same track next time but she is given another chance to build on her early promise now switching to turf, on her first run this year. End Result has bumped into some nicely handicapped types in recent starts and looks a danger, while Tralee Hills has hit a purple patch recently and can also have a major say in proceedings.

Top Tip: CROWN POWER (1)

Watch out for: END RESULT (4)
