ATR VERDICT: Cotai Class ran well when second in a strong-looking nursery at Ayr last time and he might be good enough to break his maiden tag at the sixth time of asking. However, PRODIGIOUS BLUE gets the vote following a promising display at this venue on his latest start. That was a big step forward and he is now wearing cheekpieces for the first time which may bring further improvement. Espresso is another for the shortlist as she has shown signs of ability in her two starts that suggest she could make an impact at this level.

Top Tip: PRODIGIOUS BLUE (5)

ATR VERDICT: AZURE BLUE has been second behind two horses which subsequently performed in Group 3s on her last two starts at Ayr and Carlisle, and she may prove too good for her rivals in this contest. Noteable took a step forward from her debut when she produced a promising display at Chester last time and she could be in the mix as well, while the newcomer Colombidea has plenty of class and speed in her pedigree so it would be no surprise to see her make an impact on debut.

Top Tip: AZURE BLUE (3)

Watch out for: COLOMBIDEA (6)

ATR VERDICT: Dirty Leeds got loose before the start on his debut at this venue and he could be better than the bare result that day, but this race looks like it could be set up for one of the newcomers. The expensive two-year-old purchase MACCHIAVELLO particularly catches the eye as he has an attractive pedigree and his sire was Group 1-winning two-year-old. Lil Bit Of Magic is bred to be a sprinter so it would be no surprise if she can make an impact on debut as well.

Top Tip: MACCHIAVELLO (4)

Watch out for: LIL BIT OF MAGIC (9)

ATR VERDICT: LIBERATION POINT struggled to land a blow on his latest outing at Leicester when encountering heavy ground for the first time in his career. The four-year-old can be forgiven that effort with first-time cheekpieces, combined with a step up in trip, potentially bringing about improvement. Mr Curiosity shaped better than the result suggests when third at Chester and he is of interest back on a more conventional track, while a tongue tie could see Arctic Fox enter the reckoning.

Top Tip: LIBERATION POINT (3)

ATR VERDICT: MYTHICAL DANCER sets the standard in this contest and was last seen recording a third-placed effort at Leicester. The son of Sharmadal does have to concede a 7lb penalty for his success at Thirsk but gets the vote to overcome that burden. Paradias should find this an easier task after running in a conditions race at Newbury last month and he could be the danger. Ravenswing hails from a strong family is one to note for any market support on his racecourse debut.

Top Tip: MYTHICAL DANCER (1)

Watch out for: PARADIAS (6)
