ATR VERDICT: The Jonjo O'Neill-trained AN TAILLIUR continued his progression when winning readily at Warwick on his return to action last month, registering his fourth successive win, and the five-year-old may take some stopping off a 5lb higher mark. Khan returned to form when scoring at Huntingdon earlier this month and should make a bold bid, while Gavrocheka saw out her race well when runner-up at Ludlow last time and cannot be discounted.

ATR VERDICT: The 104-rated Sunset Shiraz can get that elusive victory. Gavin Cromwell's filly has been placed in five of her six starts and has kept more than decent company. She has finished second in a Group 2 and a Group 3, and her third place in the Group One Moyglare fairly jumps off the page. Crucially, this Irish 1,000 Guineas entrant is proven on soft ground. Serafina holds the same Classic entry. She went off favourite on debut at Galway last month but finished unplaced. Improvement could be on the cards. Princess Azure began her career with a third place on heavy ground at Limerick. She looks sure to be involved. Joseph O'Brien's newcomer Give Grace is worth a market check.

ATR VERDICT: A pretty straightforward task awaits for TARHIB, who belied a 338-day absence to win with authority at Lingfield earlier in the month. Connections of the selection can do no wrong at present and this is likely to be another winner that can keep the ball rolling. Both Show Me Now and Mais Oui Marlene have ground to make up with the daughter of Dark Angel, and it may be the returning Cousins Joy, who could give her most to do.

ATR VERDICT: A case can be made for all of these but the vote goes to CANONIZED, who scored in a Listed race over 6f at York 10 days ago. A reproduction of that level of form this afternoon would give the daughter of Acclamation a big chance. Sam Maximus has been running well enough in Group company of late to suggest that he could go well, while Taj Alriyadh is the pick of the remainder.
