ATR VERDICT: BARBADOS is the class act of this field having contested the Irish St Leger only last month. A taking winner at Listowel since, and runner-up on his debut over hurdles, Jessica Harrington's charge is the one to beat if coping with the drop back in trip. Galway winner Micro Manage can give him most to think about after his satisfactory run in the English Cesarewitch. Raise You is of interest on the step up in trip, while stablemate Shoshone Warrior and Protagonist are others to consider.

Long Handicap: Card High 8 - 4

ATR VERDICT: Myboymax has consistency on his side with a top-three finish in his last six starts including wins at Yarmouth and over course and distance. This is a step up in class but bottom weight gives him a chance. SAGE ADVICE has gone well fresh in the past and was beaten less than three lengths in a similar race when last seen in April. He runs off the same mark here and could go close, while Innse Gall is worth another try at this trip.

Top Tip: SAGE ADVICE (2)

ATR VERDICT: Indulging could go well if he turns out after running at Galway on Monday, but others appeal more including Tall Story, who has had his chances but may have the best form with his nose second in a Killarney handicap reading well. The unraced FINE LACE is preferred, as she is a daughter of Frankel who looks well up to winning a race of this nature on pedigree. Gudrid looks the sort to do better and is hard to overlook.

Top Tip: FINE LACE (19)

Long Handicap: Swinging Eddie 8 - 4

ATR VERDICT: Trainer Michael Dods won this last season and has two entries this year, with QUEEN'S SARGENT the mount of Connor Beasley and presumably the stable number one. He ran on well to win over course and distance last time but will need to step up here off 6lb higher in the handicap. Redrosezorro has won here six times now and gets his ground, so is noted along with Jill Rose who only has 1lb more after a battling win at Ayr.

ATR VERDICT: L'Un Deux Trois forced Crassus to settle for another supporting role when springing a surprise over 1m4f here, although that form isn't guaranteed to be confirmed. Slieve Bearnagh and Dha Leath also arrive in winning form, but the latter only accounted for CHACHA DANCER by half a length at Navan and is 3lb worse off. Chris Timmons' filly has since been beaten here, but the drop from 1m4f is in her favour and the performance can be upgraded because she fluffed her lines at the start.

ATR VERDICT: The Resdev Way has to be of some interest, though his best recent form has been on the all-weather with a comfortable win at Wolverhampton in April. His next start on turf was less impressive but he is still hard to ignore. NEW DELHI EXPRESS ran on well over a mile and a half in a Musselburgh seller but makes his Flat handicap debut here and gets the nod, while Metal Man has claims too.

Long Handicap: Mr Trevor 7 - 12

ATR VERDICT: Dark Shot has been in excellent form and warrants respect seeking the hat-trick in this contest. However, preference is for YUKON MISSION, who was last seen putting up a game display at Pontefract and he can follow up again under a 5lb penalty with conditions likely to be in his favour. Internationaldream has been slipping down the weights and he is not to be underestimated dropping to this level.

Top Tip: YUKON MISSION (5)
Watch out for: DARK SHOT (6)

ATR VERDICT: DEEVIOUS BEAU shaped with promise on his return from a break when posting a third-placed effort at Musselburgh last month and he gets the vote to build on that performance in this contest. Dandy's Max hinted at a return to form with a respectable fourth at Pontefract and he could be danger in these calmer waters, while Rain Cap is another to note after his win over this C&D on his penultimate start.

Top Tip: DEEVIOUS BEAU (6)

ATR VERDICT: Gal Wonder comes here in good order and she should make a bold bid to go one better than a narrow second at Newmarket last month. It is the unexposed PURPLE RIBBON who is preferred, though, with the step up in trip looking a good move by connections as she looks to supplement her impressive debut success. This represents the lowest grade Celtic Art has ever run in, while Ms Gandhi has been given some respite from the handicapper.

ATR VERDICT: Trainer Paul Nicholls has won two of the last three renewals of this race which suggests Henri The Second has a chance, though the unraced son of Saddler Maker is an unknown quantity for now. LETTHETRUTHBEKNOWN changed hands for 40,000 pounds after winning her bumper by eight lengths at Cork and she may well prove the one they all have to beat here. Hillfinch also makes it on to the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: Sea Speedwell cost 400,000gns as a yearling and makes her debut here for the in-form William Haggas stable. A daughter of Sea The Stars, she is bred to be above-average and it will be interesting to see what the market makes of her chances. ENFRANCHISE is improving fast with a win at Pontefract last month and may well have even more to offer, though Global Walk could be better than we have seen so far and is also worthy of some consideration.

Long Handicap: Traveller 8 - 3

ATR VERDICT: BRINGITONBORIS has won here three times now, all over this trip, including last time out when scoring by a neck in a first-time visor. Another 4lb from the handicapper can't make his life any easier, but his stable is in great form and he won't go under without a fight. Rich Dream looks a massive threat dropped in class and in first-time cheekpieces and isn't easily overlooked, leaving Plastic Paddy and Invincibly to fight it out for the minor money.
