Long Handicap: The Very Thing 9 - 13

ATR VERDICT: NOT WHAT IT SEEMS has yet to get off the mark over hurdles but he may not get a better opportunity than this, having placed on his last two starts here and the step up in trip is expected to suit. Runner-up on his last two outings, Getthepot can give the selection most to think about on his first start for new connections. Flexi Furlough arrives with a similar profile, though she has been raised another 3lb for an fine runner-up effort at Perth. Alright Marlene and Rock The House complete the shortlist.

Top Tip: NOT WHAT IT SEEMS (3)

Watch out for: GETTHEPOT (2)

ATR VERDICT: Willie Mullins has farmed this contest with three wins in a row from 2014 to 2016 and another in 2019, and he may strike again with PURPLE MOUNTAIN. Unbeaten after two starts over hurdles, she stayed on well to win a similar race at Tipperary and has already proved her ability in this grade. Party Central is the obvious danger in receipt of 7lb and she looks to have a bright future, while the unbeaten Impervious could figure if she has the early pace for this reduced trip, having won twice over further.

Top Tip: PURPLE MOUNTAIN (1)

Watch out for: PARTY CENTRAL (7)

ATR VERDICT: The Karl Burke-trained SPYCATCHER performed creditably behind some of the leading three-year-old sprinters earlier in the year and, on his first run after a break, the son of Vadamos is favoured under ideal conditions. Bahrain Pride produced a solid comeback run when runner-up at Kempton earlier this month and is respected, while the two-year-old Eldrickjones showed much more when second at Newcastle last time and should also make a bold bid.

Top Tip: SPYCATCHER (3)

Watch out for: BAHRAIN PRIDE (1)

ATR VERDICT: DESERT DREAMER has been hugely consistent throughout her juvenile career, which includes placing twice in Group 2 company, and the ease in class represents a golden opportunity for Stuart Williams' filly to gain a black-type victory. Benefit is unbeaten in two starts and the filly is open to further improvement stepping up in grade, while Barbanera and Red Lacewing appeal most of the remainder.

Top Tip: DESERT DREAMER (4)

Watch out for: BENEFIT (3)

ATR VERDICT: SON OF RED won on his hurdling debut at Newcastle last November before not disgracing himself against tougher opposition in two subsequent outings. Alan King's gelding had a spin on the all-weather when fourth at Lingfield last month and he is expected to progress from that effort. Restandbethankful didn't run too badly on his return at Chepstow and he can enter calculations along with Champagne City, who didn't run up to scratch at Fontwell last time.

Top Tip: SON OF RED (7)

Watch out for: RESTANDBETHANKFUL (6)

ATR VERDICT: The Pdraig Roche-trained OUTSIDE THE DOOR posted his best piece of form when winning comfortably at Listowel last month, getting the better of a progressive rival in the process, and the five-year-old is tipped to prove too strong for his rivals. Game Catch continued his progression when finishing second at Tipperary earlier this month and looks set for another bold showing, while China Princess and the Gordon Elliott-trained Excelcior are others to consider in a competitive affair.

Top Tip: OUTSIDE THE DOOR (8)
