ATR VERDICT: SHALLWEHAVEONEMORE failed to fire in a Grade 1 over C&D a month ago but he had shown plenty of promise on his hurdles debut at Ascot in October. The drop in grade should help this son of Authorized and he merits the utmost respect. Balkeo finished second twice over hurdles in France and he has to be of some interest on his debut for top connections. The rest look to be up against it but Grandeur D'ame and Arthur's Seat are the pick of them.

| 4 |  | 2124-13 | FRIEND OR FOE (FR) 128 b g Walk In The Park - Mandchou | 7 11 - 3p | Lorcan Williams P F Nicholls | 146 |

ATR VERDICT: PAY THE PIPER is a likeable, tough gelding and could emerge triumphant in this small but competitive event. He lost little in defeat when a neck second at Wetherby last time (pulling 14 lengths clear of the rest) and the faster ground on this occasion should pose no problem. Friend Or Foe is best treated at these weights and rates the biggest threat, although Kildealy Briggs and Roi De Dubai are certainly no mugs either.

ATR VERDICT: ALJARYAAL was not disgraced when he was denied in the closing stages to finish third at Southwell last month. The son of Siyouni has progressed well since joining Joseph Parr and he can build on his latest effort competing off the same mark here. Peerless Percy was holding his form well last autumn and he is respected now having his first start for Ali Stronge, while Moel Arthur is one to note making his handicap debut.

ATR VERDICT: VAUBAN was backed as if defeat was out of the question on his jumping debut when going down by a half-length to Pied Piper in a Punchestown maiden. That form received a major boost when the winner bolted up in a Grade 2 at Cheltenham last Saturday and the Willie Mullins-trained gelding, twice successful on the Flat in France including a Listed race, can be expected to progress with that jumping experience under his belt. Fil Dor is the obvious threat having won all three hurdle starts in fine style. He drew clear on the run-in to beat Lunar Power for the second time at Graded level here at Christmas. Icare Allen won a 1m4f French bumper and remains unbeaten having got off to a good start for present connections by taking an 18-runner maiden at this venue. Any market move for the other Mullins pair, Il Etait Temps and Vadaly, would be interesting.

Top Tip: VAUBAN (6)
