ATR VERDICT: THIBAULT won twice in a row at this level in December 2020 and faces his easiest task over hurdles since. He has been creeping down the ratings and, with the talented Ben Ffrench Davis taking a valuable 5lb off his back today, he must have a big chance. Global Agreement arrives in cracking form and should give his 10lb conditional a good spin, while Haydock scorer The Grey Falco adds further spice to the race.

Top Tip: THIBAULT (1)

Watch out for: GLOBAL AGREEMENT (8)

ATR VERDICT: HORS PISTE can get off the mark now after a narrow defeat at Tramore on her Irish debut. The French import went to post a short price on her first outing for Willie Mullins and just failed to capitalise on the last flight mistake of Where It All Began. She rallied well on the run-in then after it had appeared she was going to be outstayed by the winner. Dropping back in trip shouldn't be an issue. Copper Nation also lost out narrowly on her last outing when collared late on at Punchestown by Rock On Cassie. She looks like the obvious danger. Beth Horan has had a couple of solid runs this season and looks to be place material.

Top Tip: HORS PISTE (9)

Long Handicap: Leskinfere 9 - 7

ATR VERDICT: Marettimo bounced back to form when taking advantage of a falling mark at Taunton but he's not certain to confirm that form under a 7lb penalty, while Out The Glen won well over slightly further here two starts ago and is 2lb lower than when a distant third at Fontwell last time. No Hubs No Hoobs may benefit from the switch to fences and is interesting, but preference is for RADEZKY MARCH. Laura Morgan's former pointer took a huge step forward when bolting up on his chasing and handicap debut at Fakenham last time and though this will be tougher under a 7lb penalty, he could be capable of going in again.

Top Tip: RADEZKY MARCH (6)

Watch out for: OUT THE GLEN (5)
