Long Handicap: The Ormer Gatherer 8 - 11, Brolly 8 - 11

ATR VERDICT: SURREY TERRITORIES may be a maiden after eight starts, but he has shaped on more than one occasion that a step up beyond a mile may suit. He gets that opportunity here and can strike for in-form connections. Summereyes is better than she showed over C&D last time, while Birkie Girl ran arguably a career-best on her latest appearance. There wasn't much between Away Wit Da Fairys and Cicely at Chelmsford and both are likely to have a say here.

Top Tip: SURREY TERRITORIES (7)

Watch out for: CICELY (1)

ATR VERDICT: GREY SKIES won well on his debut for these connections at Uttoxeter late last month and he merits plenty of respect today, despite having to carry a 6lb penalty. Escapeandevade is another proven winner to consider, although he was well held under a penalty last time. Cliffs Of Dooneen was useful on the Flat and should not be discounted on his hurdling bow.

Top Tip: GREY SKIES (2)

ATR VERDICT: HOOVES LIKE JAGGER is on a roll at present and there is no reason for that to end as the four-year-old looks to land the hat-trick under a 5lb penalty for last Saturday's triumph at Wolverhampton. Donya got the better of Devizes when they met over C&D in January and both make plenty of appeal, along with Compass Point, who has slipped to a mark 1lb below his last victory.

ATR VERDICT: Flexi Furlough got off the mark at the 11th time of asking over timber in comfortable fashion at Doncaster last month and there is every chance she could kick on following that success. That said, DASH FULL OF CASH arrives having run with promise on both his hurdle outings and the son of Milan is capable of striking on his handicap debut. Here Comes Henry completes the shortlist.
