ATR VERDICT: Sashenka arrives with plenty of experience after seven starts over hurdles and if she improves for a recent wind operation, she could go close here. Malaita has shown ability over hurdles and may try to make all dropping back in trip, but HELLFIRE PRINCESS looked a horse to follow when winning her bumper here in January. She quickened up nicely that day and, as she is bred to be even better over hurdles, she may have a decent future in front of her.

Top Tip: HELLFIRE PRINCESS (5)

Watch out for: SASHENKA (13)

ATR VERDICT: GUGUSS COLLONGES failed to fire at Plumpton last time but he can be given another chance based on his previous win and narrow defeat at the same venue. Concrete King remains unexposed and the former point-to-point winner has to be of some interest on his chasing debut. Alkopop edges out Graces Order and Oxwich Bay to be best of the rest.

ATR VERDICT: The Dr Richard Newland-trained ROSE SEA HAS has looked like this extra 3f should suit having stayed on when runner-up at both Ffos Las and Chepstow this year. The seven-year-old gelding has been left on the same mark as both those runs and the softer ground could also suit. Gemirande looks an obvious danger having finished third behind Destin D'ajonc in January. Yggdrasil is still unexposed over this trip and warrants respect.

ATR VERDICT: Bumper winner GELINO BELLO hasn't quite kicked on in the manner expected since a successful hurdles debut at Aintree, but this drop in trip and class should see him in a better light. Jerrash's soft-ground Ascot win last month (extended 2m5f) marked him out as promising sort but he was done for speed when dropped in trip at Huntingdon next time and, though he is preferred to stablemate Make My Day, this may be an insufficient stamina test.

ATR VERDICT: GRACE A VOUS ENKI seemed to find things tough when he was pulled up in the Grade 3 Classic Chase at Warwick last month. The six-year-old gelding should find this an easier assignment returning to hurdles and can get back on track with the fitting of blinkers. Late Romantic is another who has been keeping better company over fences and is not to be underestimated returning to this discipline, while Lucky So And So can also enter the frame if building on his recent third at Exeter.
